MONTCLAIR STATE UNIVERSITY
Center for Academic Advising and Adult Learning
Adult Learning Scholarships

The Center for Academic Advising and Adult Learning (CAAAL) administers the Ralph P. LaSalle Scholarship, the Helen M. Purcell Scholarship, and the Alicia Pareha Savage Scholarship which are awarded by the Montclair State University Foundation for one academic year (fall/spring). The Montclair State University Foundation supports the activities of the University in many ways. Through its endowments, the Foundation has made funds available for scholarships to adult students. A limited number of scholarships are offered each year to qualified Adult Learning students.

The Adult Learning Scholarships are available to all currently enrolled and qualified Adult Learning students at Montclair State University. Applications must be submitted directly to the Center for Academic Advising and Adult Learning by July 1st to be considered for awards for the following academic year. To be eligible to receive the award, students must be accepted and enrolled at Montclair State University. Please refer to the information below for the selection criteria and award amounts for each scholarship. Recipients must maintain a minimum of a 2.5 grade point average each semester of the award.
