

Saturday, November 12th -18th

The Dream, Living Images of our Post-9/11 World
Life Hall Exhibition Space

Artist/Photographer: Mike Peters

This exhibit of images expresses the photographer's views on what it is to be an American in the 21st Century. Taken in Kearny, and Ridgefield, NJ, and in Coney Island, NY, the photos are of those who "make and do", the "grunts", whose behind the scenes efforts are integral to this daily theatre we call life. -Mike Peters, Photographer

Monday, November 14th

Discover your Heritage through Study Abroad with Global Education

Are your parents or grandparents from outside the U.S.? Would you like to learn more about the country, language and culture of the land of your family members? Study Abroad is a great way to accomplish this while earning academic credit towards graduation. Come and learn about the over 50 different countries/programs available to you as an MSU student and discover what its like to connect with your heritage in a new way.

11:00am - 12:00pm

Cohen Lounge, Dickson Hall

Hidden Voices: The Lives of LGBT Muslims

Discussion by queer Muslim activist, speaker and writer, Faisal Alam

5:30pm-7:00pm

The Heights Multipurpose Room

Tuesday, November 15th

"El Cafesito" with The Latino/a Caucus'

Join the Latino/a Caucus for coffee and conversation.

12:30pm

Dickson Hall 333

Zumbathon

Proceeds Benefit Earth Birth, a Safe Midwifery group in Africa

7:00pm-9:00pm

Student Center Ballrooms

Wednesday, November 16th

Iron Chef—Sponsored by the Japan Club

1:00pm - 5:00pm

Student Center Rathskeller

Thursday, November 17th

Searching for Truth in a Post 9/11 World

Conversations of Faith and Spirituality

1:00pm-2:00pm

Student Center Room 112

Women Going Global

Women going on study abroad programs outnumber men by about 2 to

1. Considering that widespread solo travel for women only came into vogue in the past 200 years, why are women suddenly finding themselves on planes and trains in record numbers? What challenges do female travelers face? Join us to learn what women need to know before studying abroad, and for a panel discussion about what traveling is like for women in this post-9/11 world.

4:30pm

Student Center Room 417

Stage Door—Exploring the lure of Hollywood for young actresses.

7:30 pm

Alexander Kasser Theatre

Friday, November 18th

11th Annual Higher Education Conference with the American Conference on Diversity- A Dream Deferred? Black and Latino Males in College and the Workplace

9:00am-3:00pm.

Rutgers University in Newark Registration Link:

<https://secure.afc.rutgers.edu/diversity/>

Sponsored by: The Office of Equity and Diversity, the College of the Arts' Office of Education and Community Outreach, Montclair State University Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender Center, Philosophy and Religion, Counseling and Psychological Services, The Women's Center at Montclair State University, Peak Performances @ Montclair, Council for Faith and Spirituality, Muslim Student Association, Global Education Center at Montclair State University, Latino/a Caucus, The Center for Student Involvement, Japan Club, Women & Gender Studies, Campus Recreation, Earth Spirituality Union, GLBTQ Studies Minor, Sociology Dept, Theatre & Dance Dept., American Conference on Diversity

Seventh Annual Diversity Week

November 12-18th, 2011

Visit our website: www.montclair.edu/arts or call (973) 655-5114

Sponsored by the Office of Equity and Diversity and the College of the Arts at Montclair State University