Minor in Chinese

The Modern Languages and Literatures department offers a Chinese language minor which can complement any of the majors at the University. This program provides courses that enable students to achieve proficiency in reading, writing and speaking Chinese and to acquire a fundamental understanding of Chinese culture. Through these course offerings, students will be equipped with the necessary language skills to further their studies, achieve academic and/or career goals and to pursue their dreams.

A number of Chinese courses count towards the Asian Studies Minor.

The Chinese program also organizes a variety of fun and exciting extracurricular activities: Class trips to Chinese restaurants and to Chinatown in NYC, Chinese calligraphy and painting workshops, Tai-chi workshops, film screenings, karaoke singing and more.

Multiple Majors and Minors Multiply Career Opportunities

Many of our students have multiple majors and/or minors. Working closely with an advisor helps students prepare for a competitive job market and enhance their academic experience within multiple programs while maintaining a four-year graduation schedule.

Campus Life and Study Abroad

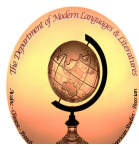

On campus, language clubs and immersion language residence hall floors provide informal settings for speaking and interacting in the target language. Recent events include a film series; trips to restaurants, museums, operas, and plays in New York City; and international travel. Students may also take advantage of MSU-affiliated study abroad programs in over fifty countries.

High School Students Welcome

High-achieving high school students are welcome to take our language courses through the Rising Red Hawk program.
