

Teacher Education Admissions Overview

Eligibility Criteria

Requirements for the Teacher Education Program may vary by certification or degree program; however, for full consideration, all applicants must show evidence of the following:

- Meeting GPA Requirements:
 - Cumulative GPA of 3.0 for applicants to a single certification program or 3.25 for applicants to the Combined Bachelor's/Master's Program with Dual Certification
 - Meeting the minimum GPA in the respective major (see certification program handout)
- Satisfying prerequisite course requirements
- Demonstrating evidence of satisfactory written and oral skills

STUDENTS WHOSE GPA IS 0.25 POINTS BELOW THE OVERALL OR MAJOR GPA REQUIREMENT MAY APPLY AS A SUPPLEMENTAL CANDIDATE.

How to Apply

Interested students may apply by visiting the Teacher Education Program website and submitting an online application.

Applications are considered completed and ready for review when all of the following materials are submitted on or before the application deadline:

- Completed Teacher Education Admissions Application
- Current unofficial transcript from Montclair State University
- One (1) letter of recommendation from a faculty member
- Admissions essay(s)
- Resume
