

Acceptable Risk

The degree to which an individual or society is willing to tolerate the existence of something that poses a danger.

Case Definition

A way to describe an illness or injury by identifying who has it, what happened, where it happened, and when it happened.

Prevent

To keep something from happening.

Risk Management

Steps taken to reduce the levels of risk to which an individual or a population is exposed.

Risk Perception

One's feeling or opinion of the existence or size of a risk.

One's estimate of the likelihood that an undesirable consequence, associated with some activity, will occur within a period of time.