Communication Sciences and Disorders

College of Education and Health Sciences

JOB SUMMARY:

The Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders of Adelphi University (<https://education-csd.adelphi.edu/>) invites applications for a tenure-track position at the Assistant Professor level.

The Department offers a vibrant and diverse clinical and research atmosphere where academic and clinical faculty are dedicated to providing students with the highest level of professional training in the classroom, at our on-campus Hy Weinberg Center for Communication Disorders, and in the New York metropolitan community. The Department of CSD offers degrees at the bachelors, masters, and doctoral levels, and is part of the College of Education and Health Sciences. We are dedicated to achieving programmatic excellence through cultural diversity.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Teaching at the undergraduate, masters and doctoral levels.

Maintaining an active research agenda; and university service.

One or both candidates should be prepared to teach in the department's Sunday Manhattan Center program. These courses run on 8-week cycles, with 4 hours of class weekly.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Applicants must have an earned doctorate in Speech-Language Pathology or a related area.

Certificate of clinical competence and eligibility for a New York State license to practice preferred.

We will consider applicants from all areas, but are particularly interested in persons with expertise in adult speech and language disorders and/or adult dysphagia.

We are seeking candidates who have a strong commitment to teaching undergraduate and graduate students from diverse cultural backgrounds.

APPLICATION:

Applicants should submit a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, a statement of research interests, copies of representative publications, a statement of your teaching philosophy, and any evidence of successful teaching, particularly involving students from culturally diverse backgrounds.

Three confidential letters of recommendation should be emailed to Laura L. Koenig, Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders, Adelphi University; email: lkoenig@adelphi.edu .

Informal inquiries concerning the position are welcome: lkoenig@adelphi.edu .

We will begin reviewing applications immediately and will continue until the appropriate candidates are secured.

We strongly encourage applications from members of historically under-represented minority groups.
