

MONTCLAIR STATE UNIVERSITY

Holocaust, Genocide, and Human Rights Education Project

Human Rights Education Internship Spring 2026

The Holocaust, Genocide, and Human Rights Education Project announces a competitive internship in HUMAN RIGHTS EDUCATION.

Open to all undergrads, sophomores and above.

Human Rights Education Interns:

- Study and learn about human rights law and history.
- Conduct in-depth, academic research on a specific human rights topic.
- Complete training in human rights education pedagogy and curriculum development.
- Develop a lesson plan for a high school classroom on your topic.
- Visit a local school and teach your lesson.

Requirements:

- Open to all students, sophomores and above, any major.
- No teaching experience necessary.
- Identify a human rights topic that matters to you.
- Accepted interns must take EDFD 445 Human Rights Education, Mon. & Wed. 12:00-1:25pm. You will earn 3 credits for the internship.

Sample topics: Black Lives Matter, disability rights, antisemitism, environmental justice, Native American justice, Latinx history, DACA & Dreamers, reproductive health care, mental health disparities, housing or food insecurity, educational equality, LGBTQ+ rights, AAPI history, juvenile justice, mass incarceration, religious freedom...

Apply by Oct. 17

To apply:

<https://bit.ly/Montclair2026>

Easy, online application.

Contact Information:

Dr. Zoë Burkholder

burkholderz@montclair.edu