Course Attributes for 202040 - FALL 2020

SUBJECT	COURSE_NUMBER	COURSE_TEXT_NARRATIVE	ACTIVE_COURSE_IND	COURSE_ATTRIBUTE	COURSE_ATTRIBUTE_DESC
ACCT	201	Prerequisite(s): WRIT 105 or HONP 100. Restriction(s): Accounting majors and Business majors with Finance Concentration students only. This is an introductory course in financial accounting from a preparer perspective. The theoretical foundation and basic accounting terminology is addressed. The course will enable the students to perform the entire accounting cycle from analyzing basic accounting transactions to the preparation of the basic financial statements including the balance sheet, income statement, statement of stockholders' equity and statement of cash flows. The course will enable students to critically analyze accounting information.	Y
ACCT	202	Prerequisite(s): ACCT 201. Restriction(s): Accounting Majors only. The course covers the use of accounting information for internal planning, controlling and decision making. The course introduces basic concepts of management accounting including cost classifications, product costing, cost-volume-profit analysis, operational budgeting, standard setting and performance evaluation, decentralization, relevant costs and decision making.	Y
ACCT	204	Prerequisite(s): WRIT 105 or HONP 100. Restriction(s): Not open to BS Accounting Majors. This course provides a foundation for non-accounting business majors. Topics covered include both financial and managerial accounting from a user perspective. Students will be exposed to the four financial statements and ethical issues in accounting along with other accounting reporting issues in the financial accounting phase of the course. Managerial accounting focuses on generating accounting data for internal business decision-making in today's increasingly competitive and complex business world. Students need to become familiar with the use of accounting data for both investment and credit decisions as well as strategic decision making for firms' operation. Major topics covered include financial statement analysis, budgeting, accounting-based decision making, and performance evaluation.	Y
ACCT	301	Prerequisite(s): ACCT 201. Restriction(s): Accounting major students only. This course builds on material presented in Fundamentals of Financial Accounting. Students acquire an improved understanding of the composition and significance of various segments of income statements and balance sheet, particularly related to current assets and various income statement revenue and expense items leading to an improved understanding of the preparation of various aspects of the financial statements as well as an enhancement of their ability to critically evaluate financial statements.	Y
ACCT	302	Prerequisite(s): ACCT 301. Restriction(s): Accounting major students only. Corequisite(s): ACCT 304 with permission from the Department Chair. Special fee. Continuation of Intermediate Accounting I. Students acquire an improved understanding of the composition and significance of various segments of the income statement and the balance sheet, particularly non-current assets, liabilities, owners' equity, and earnings per share leading to an improved understanding of the preparation of various aspects of the financial statements as well as an enhancement of their ability to critically evaluate accounting and its impact to the international community.	Y
ACCT	304	Prerequisite(s): ACCT 302 (may be taken concurrently with the approval of the Department Chairperson). Restriction(s): Accounting major students only. Special fee. In-depth discussion and analysis of traditional intermediate financial accounting topics as well as recent developments in accounting valuation and reporting practices. Course builds on topics discussed in Intermediate Accounting I and II leading to an improved understanding of the preparation of various aspects of the financial statements as well as enhancement of their ability to critically evaluate financial reporting. Meets the Graduation Writing Requirement for majors in Accounting.	Y	GWR	University Writing Requirement
