Title: Teacher of Latin (high school) OR Teacher of Spanish (high school or elementary)

Location: Nutley School District

Job Type: Full-Time (Entry-Level)

Compensation Type: Salary

Start Date: 9/1/2017

Job Description: Teaching staff members will instruct children in their charge in accordance with the curriculum and program of study adopted by the Board of Education. It is the teacher’s role to ensure student learning by engaging students with authentic challenges that allow for assessment that measures growth and informs future instruction.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Creation and implementation of new elementary World Language curriculum
- Mapping and lesson planning as well as the creation of other instructional materials to ensure student success
- Creating/Administering common assessments to better inform instruction and assess the curriculum
- Assessing students' oral and written ability in the target language
- Using Instructional Technology in order to increase the authenticity of the language learning environment
- Fostering a target-language only environment

Qualifications:

- Appropriate teaching certification in Latin OR in Spanish

Application Instructions:

Please review position information and apply on the Nutley website: www.nutleyschools.org.

About the Organization: The township of Nutley is located approximately 15 miles west of New York City in Essex County. The Nutley School District serves approximately 4,100 students in Kindergarten through grade 12. The five elementary schools serve students K-6 and include the Lincoln School, the Radcliffe School, the Spring Garden School, the Washington School and the Yantacaw School. The John H. Walker Middle School serves students in grades 7-8 while Nutley High School addresses the needs of students in grades 9-12. The Nutley Schools have a long tradition of educational excellence. Nutley students have consistently scored above the State average on tests administered as part of the New Jersey State Testing Program. Nutley students compete in various academic competitions on town, county, state and national levels. School Budgets are very consistently supported by the community. The School District’s website as well as the township website nutleynj.org is extensive, and informative. It is another indication of this attractive suburban community that encourages citizens to support actively the rich opportunities that Nutley, New Jersey offers citizens of all ages.