Robertet

Title: Sensory Analyst

Location: Mt Olive, NJ

Job Type: Full-Time (Experienced)

Compensation Type: Salary

Start Date: ASAP

Job Description: The role of the sensory analyst is to design, implement, conduct, and report the findings of sensory tests in both finished products and fragrance systems.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Improve and expand all of our testing options resulting in increased reliability and reproducibility.
- Report results to internal and/or external customers.
- Provide global sensory support.
- Establish and lead quant and qual panels.
- Participate and aid in project development.
- Support Research & Development team in designing and conducting all proactive testing
- Create dynamic and exciting PowerPoint presentations for the Research & Development Department.

Qualifications:

- BS in Chemistry, Mathematics, Physics or related field
- 2 years practical sensory or related industrial experience

Application Instructions: Please use the below link to apply online:

About the Organization: Robertet is the world's leading source of natural, sustainable and organic ingredients and is one of the oldest fragrance and flavor companies in the world. With a passion for and unparalleled understanding of natural ingredients, Robertet is a world-renowned innovator in scent and taste with a global reach represented in over 50 countries, 14 manufacturing sites on 3 continents, 3 R&D innovation centers and 12 creative centers.

Robertet is the only fragrance, flavor and ingredient company fully integrated at each step of the creation process, from the source ingredient to the final fragrance and flavor. Founded in 1850 in Grasse, France, Robertet continues to be privately owned and managed by the fourth generation of family members. With a passion for and unparalleled understanding of naturals, together with boundless creativity and market insight, allows Robertet to provide their customers with world class innovation in scent and taste.