Title: Instructional Designer

Location: New York, NY

Job Type: Full-Time

Compensation Type: Salary

Start Date: ASAP

Job Description:
Reporting directly to the Director of Learning & Development, our Instructional Designer will have a direct impact on revolutionizing teacher and leader training. S/he will also help us share our training content beyond the walls of Success Academy to reform the educational world at large. The ideal Instructional Designer has a track record of effectively delivering learning content across multiple platforms and a variety of formats, including online and blended learning environments. S/he is a skilled storyteller, has a strong sense of humor, and is able to utilize different authoring tools to create engaging interactions that make learning stick.

Primary Responsibilities:
- Working with a variety of authoring tools (including, but not limited to Articulate Storyline) to create well-designed, effective training for a variety of adult audiences;
- Designing for rapid development and reusability;
- Development of courses from existing templates;
- Creation of branching scenarios and serious games;
- Handling multiple projects at a given time, prioritizing among them as necessary;
- Partnering with content owners (SMEs) to produce content across multiple departments.

Qualifications:
- Ability to collaborate with a team as well as execute responsibilities individually;
- Ability to approach problems from multiple perspectives;
- Coding knowledge a plus;
- Interest or experience in game development.
