Title: Summer 2017 Digital Intern

Location (address, city, state): Northfield, NJ

Job Type: Co-op/Internship

Compensation Type: Unpaid  Wage (optional):

Start Date: 5/15/2017  Close Date: 5/12/2017

Job Description:

Internship is based in Townsquare Media Atlantic City’s digital department and can extend into the marketing, and promotions, programming, and sales departments.

It is a requirement for our program that you receive college credit. In order to receive credit, you’ll need to provide a letter from your school stating that you are receiving credit. Internships are unpaid. We do not reimburse for parking, tolls or gas.

Required to work a minimum of 8 hours per week in the office and help at events, if needed. Some events may be on the weekends or at night. Office hours will be set each week depending upon intern’s schedule. Events will vary based on the event. These are normally 3-4 hours in length unless it is a live broadcast, then it is the length of the show.

You will intern for all our stations in the building and have the opportunity to learn different formats and audiences.

You are given trust and responsibility from day one. It is up to you to maintain it. You are instantly a part of our team. I like to give you enough information to complete a task, always ask questions but go the extra mile to try and solve a problem before giving up.

You will get out of this internship what you put into it. Learn, be a sponge and have ambition. This is the first step of your career.

Some aspects of this internship may require manual labor (IE: Lifting equipment, etc.)

Primary Responsibilities:

- Assisting with blogs/website content
- Taking photos/videos
- Editing videos/photos
- Creating photo galleries for events
- Much, much more!
Qualifications:

- Experience in writing and photography
- Be able to receive college credit

Application Instructions: If you think you have what it takes to be a rock star digital intern with Townsquare Media, please send a cover letter and your resume to Ashley.Surkin@townsquaremedia.com. Use “Digital Intern” as your subject line.
