The CIA Office of Inspector General has openings for Auditors to conduct performance, financial statement, financial-related, and information systems audits of CIA programs and activities.

Minimum requirements include a BS/BA in accounting, finance, information systems, or business management, with a solid academic record. Excellent written and oral communications skills, and the ability to apply Government Auditing Standards, discern key issues and draw appropriate conclusions are also required. Two to five years of experience in government auditing, accounting or information systems is preferred, but not required. Applicants with advanced degrees or who possess professional certifications such as Certified Public Accountants, Certified Fraud Examiners or Certified Information System Auditors are especially encouraged to apply. Opportunities for foreign travel are available.

Candidates will be evaluated on their ability to understand and assess complex issues, analyze programs and activities, and recommend appropriate action; interact with senior CIA officials; work productively and without constant supervision in a team environment; knowledge of accounting and management concepts, principles, and techniques; knowledge of computer applications and the theory and function of major information management systems.

ALL POSITIONS REQUIRE RELOCATION TO THE WASHINGTON DC METROPOLITAN AREA.

All applicants must successfully complete a thorough medical and psychological exam, a polygraph interview and an extensive background investigation. US citizenship is required.

To be considered suitable for Agency employment, applicants must generally not have used illegal drugs within the last twelve months. The issue of illegal drug use prior to twelve months ago is carefully evaluated during the medical and security processing.

Important Notice: Friends, family, individuals, or organizations may be interested to learn that you are an applicant for or an employee of the CIA. Their interest, however, may not be benign or in your best interest. You cannot control whom they would tell. We therefore ask you to exercise discretion and good judgment in disclosing your interest in a position with the Agency. You will receive further guidance on this topic as you proceed through your CIA employment processing.

To Apply:

Save the position(s) that interest you in the job cart. You can add up to four (4) positions. Job cart selections will only be retained during this site visit, so be sure to click “Apply Now” before closing the browser window. After clicking "Apply Now" you will be taken to the application account creation page. The positions will appear in the cart once you have created an account. DO NOT submit multiple applications; this will only slow the review of your application and delay processing. Please read the Application Instructions carefully before you begin the online application process.
