Faculty/Staff

Tiffany L. Brown
brownti@mail.montclair.edu
Education: Ph.D. in Child and Family Studies, Syracuse University; M.A. & B.A., Binghamton University
Professional Research/Interests: African American families; cultural influences on parenting and family relationships; gender and intimate relationships.

Jonathan Caspi
caspij@mail.montclair.edu
Professional Research/Interests: Sibling relationships; sibling aggression; clinical and educational supervision in social work.

Constance Gager
gagerc@mail.montclair.edu
Education: Ph.D. in Sociology, University of Pennsylvania; M.A., University of Vermont; B.A., Clark University (Massachusetts)
Professional Research/Interests: Predictors of relationship quality and divorce; the division of household labor; adolescent time use.

Pauline Garcia-Reid
garciaireidp@mail.montclair.edu
Education: Ph.D. in Social Work, Fordham University; M.S.W. & B.A., Rutgers University
Professional Research/Interests: Culturally-grounded social work practice; Latino/a emphasis; educational outcomes; youth substance use and violence prevention.

Katia Paz Goldfarb, Chair
goldfarbk@mail.montclair.edu
Education: Ph.D. in Family & Child Ecology, Michigan State University; M.A., Eastern Michigan University; B.A., Hebrew University of Jerusalem
Professional Research/Interests: Examining the social issues that influence families and community life, particularly Latino families and children; family diversity and the role of Family and Child Studies in the teacher preparation.

Sara Goldstein
goldsteins@mail.montclair.edu
Education: Ph.D. in Developmental Psychology & M.A. Bowling Green State University; B.A., College of New Jersey
Professional Research/Interests: Social and cognitive development, focusing on the development of peer relationships and peer behavior during childhood, adolescence, and young adulthood. Specifically, how peer relationships and cognitions about peer relationships influence the development of aggression and other forms of problem behavior.

Lyndal Khaw
khawl@mail.montclair.edu
Education: Ph.D. in Human Development & Family Studies, M.S., & B.S. University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
Professional Research/Interests: Intimate partner violence and other types of family violence; change processes and the impact of change and stress on family boundaries and dynamics; qualitative methods.

Chih-Yuan Steven Lee
leech@mail.montclair.edu
Education: Ph.D. in Family Social Science, University of Minnesota; M.S., Auburn University; B.A., National Taiwan University
Professional Research/Interests: Prevention intervention; family stress, parenting, and child development; depression and suicide prevention; substance abuse; cross-cultural research on family dynamics.

Soyoung Lee
leeso@mail.montclair.edu
Education: Ph.D. in Human Development, Virginia Tech; M.S. & B.S., Seoul National University
Professional Research/Interests: Community capacity; reciprocal influences between diverse families and communities; immigrant families; family life education; family program development and evaluation; decision making among young females.
Miriam Linver
linverm@mail.montclair.edu
Education: Ph.D. in Family Studies & Human Development & M.S., University of Arizona; B.A., Brandeis University
Professional Research/Interests: Family processes through which income affects children and youth; transition to young adulthood; child and adolescent time use.

Olena Nesteruk
nesteruko@mail.montclair.edu
Education: Ph.D. in Family, Child and Consumer Sciences & M.S, Louisiana State University; B.S., National Agricultural University of Ukraine
Professional Research/Interests: Immigration and families; acculturation, parenting, and immigrant family relationships; family stress and coping; qualitative research.

Christine A. Price
pricech@mail.montclair.edu
Education: Ph.D. in Child and Family Development & M.S., University of Georgia; B.A., University of California, Irvine
Professional Research/Interests: Women and retirement; aging family relationships and intergenerational dynamics; gender issues in later life; qualitative methods.

Robert Reid
reidr@mail.montclair.edu
Education: Ph.D. in Social Policy, Planning and Policy Analysis, Columbia University; M.S.W. & B.A., Rutgers
Professional Research/Interests: Community based participatory research; substance abuse and HIV/AIDS prevention among urban minority youth; structural and environmental interventions to prevent alcohol and tobacco use.

Pearl Stewart
stewartp@mail.montclair.edu
Education: Ph.D. in Family Studies, University of Delaware; M.S.S.A., Case Western Reserve University; B.S., University of Delaware Professional Research/Interests: African-American extended families; family diversity; cultural connections between African American and West African families.

Jennifer Brown Urban
urbanj@mail.montclair.edu
Education: Ph.D. in Human Development & M.A., Cornell University; B.A., Tufts University
Professional Research/Interests: Applied developmental science; positive youth development; developmental systems theories; out-of-school activity involvement and the impact on positive and negative indicators of development; ecological factors as context for development; effective means of integrating research and practice; evaluation and program planning particularly for youth development programs, STEM (science, technology, engineering, mathematics) programs, and public health programs.

Brad van Eeden-Moorefield vaneedenmobr@mail.montclair.edu
Education: Ph.D. in Human Development & Family Studies, University of North Carolina Greensboro; M.S.W., University of North Carolina Greensboro/North Carolina A&T University; B.A., Appalachian State University
Professional Research/Interests: Factors related to relationship quality and stability; contextual effects (i.e. discrimination, policy) on family relationships; remarriage and stepfamilies; LGBT-headed families; program development and evaluation; qualitative and quantitative internet methodology.

Shannon Bellum, Department Administrator
bellums@mail.montclair.edu
Education: M.F.A. & M.A., Montclair State University; B.S. SUNY-Oneonta

Christopher Cottle, Department Advisor cottlec@mail.montclair.edu
Education: B.A., Kean College of New Jersey

Jen Wilenta, Program Assistant wilentaj@mail.montclair.edu
Education: B.S., Montclair State University