Guest speaker Bob Max received the Purple Heart with Oak Leaf Cluster, three Campaign Bronze Battle Stars and the New Jersey Distinguished Service Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster for ground combat.

The George Segal Gallery, in partnership with the Holocaust Council of Greater MetroWest, welcomes guest speaker, Bob Max, for a special gallery talk on Veterans Day, November 11. New Jersey native and WWII veteran, Max was taken prisoner during the Battle of the Bulge by the German army and was forced into a Nazi labor camp. After being starved, brutalized and denied shelter, Max escaped and was later hospitalized for ten months. George Segal Gallery Director and Curator, M. Teresa Lapid Rodriguez, will provide an introduction and link many of the themes that Max will speak about with the artwork of Ben Wilson (1913 – 2000), and George Segal (1924 – 2000). Both artists explored themes of the Holocaust and anti-Semitism; Wilson through his abstract expressionist paintings and collages, and Segal through his sculptural installations.
