The George Segal Gallery will present two gallery lectures on November 6. Director and Curator of the George Segal Gallery, M. Teresa Lapid Rodriguez, will present MSU Works on Paper Collection: History and Highlights. The current exhibition, on display through December 20, is the first in a series to showcase artists from the permanent collection. Rodriguez will provide an overview of the exhibition and focus on the significant contributions to mid-20th-century art by George Segal and Andy Warhol.

George Segal Gallery Advisory Board Chair, Particia G. Selden, will present Owning Art: Creating Collections, Buying Art, Practicalities of Ownership, Becoming a Collector. An educator and a fine art consultant, Selden is also a founding member of the Montclair Arts Council and has provided leadership to six public art projects in Montclair, NJ.
