GEORGE SEGAL GALLERY

at Montclair State University presents:

LECTURE AND TEA TASTING:

FOR ALL THE TEA IN JAPAN / History and Culture

Saturday, April 11, 2015, George Segal Gallery
3:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

In conjunction with the exhibition, The Enchanting Art of Japan, curated by Gallery Director, M. Teresa Lapid Rodriguez, the George Segal Gallery is pleased to present a lecture and tea tasting which will highlight the historical and cultural significance of tea in Japan. The program is led by Montclair State University alumni, co-founder and tea sommelier for the international tea brand Tavalon Tea, Chris Cason. Sample teas include Brown Rice Tea, Twig Tea and Roasted Tea.

EVENT INFORMATION

- Saturday, April 11
- 3:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.
- Admission is $10 per person
- Please call 973.655.6941 or email somerwitze@mail.montclair.edu to make a reservation. Seating is limited and purchased tickets are non-refundable.
- Please RSVP by April 8.

The George Segal Gallery would like to thank its sponsors:

- The McMullen Family Foundation
- The George Segal Advisory Board

The exhibition, The Enchanting Art of Japan, was made possible in part by funding from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a partner agency of the National Endowment for the Arts.