Strategies to Use After You Read

Or, how do I know what I know?

You are not done reading just because you hit the end of the chapter. The only way to make sure you learn the material is to actively engage with it and test yourself.

1. Answer all the questions you posed as part of your pre-reading.
2. Write summaries without looking at text.
3. Ask general questions. What is the main idea? How does this chapter relate to others? How does the reading relate to the lectures?

Quiz yourself!
