The Spanish and Italian Department Presents

“The Cervantes Project”
Commemorating the 400th anniversary of Miguel de Cervantes’ death.

A Lecture by Lidia Falcón:
Las mujeres del Quijote

April 19, 2016
11:30 a.m. – 12:45 p.m.
Dickson Hall, Cohen Lounge

Novelist, essayist, dramatist, journalist, poet, lawyer and founder of the Feminist Party in Spain, Lidia Falcón is one of the most important international voices in the defense of women’s rights. She brings to her reading of Cervantes’ masterpiece, Don Quijote, a uniquely feminist perspective. In Spanish.

April 29, 2016
8:15 p.m. – 9:15 p.m.
Dickson Hall, Brantl Auditorium

Performance of El juicio de Sancho. Play written by Lidia Falcón to be performed by students from the Spanish program at Montclair State University. In Spanish.