RECRUITING GUIDELINES
FOR
CIVIL SERVICE POSITIONS
Activity Checklist for Filling Classified Positions

The hiring manager is responsible for completing or monitoring completion of the following activities related to the selection process for classified positions. For all new positions contact University Staffing Services, CO-316 to determine position title and job specification then proceed with check list.

PRE-RECRUITMENT

□ Documents: Complete a Position Action Approval Form (PAAF) (p.1), a current Job Description (p.2), and a current Organizational Chart, (p.3) and submit to University Staffing Services. For reclassifying a vacant position to a different title, also submit a Budget Information for Reclassification Request Form.

□ Contact Human Resources for current Eligible certification list inquiries.

□ Posting: For Civil Service positions, the recruitment period begins on Friday of each week. All positions are normally posted for a minimum of ten (10) business days; Position(s) are posted on the MSU website at www.montclair.edu/hr/jobopportunity.html Higher Education Recruitment Consortium (HERC), HigherEdJobs.com by request. The Human Resources Job Announcement Board located outside of College Hall 316 will also display all vacancies.

□ Advertising: Contact Garry Rideout, x7046 for details on advertising in the local newspapers.

□ Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Guidelines: Montclair State University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. The hiring manager should review affirmative action requirements prior to any recruitment or selection activities. Barbara Milton, University EO/AA Officer, is available to answer any questions regarding this process, x4349.

□ Screening Criteria: Develop guidelines, procedures and evaluative criteria to be used during the selection process.

RECRUITMENT

□ Applicants: Applications for candidates interested in the position are forwarded (via campus mail) to the department after the position closes. Please call University Staffing Services at x4227 if you require other accommodations.

□ Select Candidates for Interview: Screen applications and select candidates to be interviewed. All internal candidates meeting the minimum requirements should be considered and interviewed. Keep a written record of screening criteria and evaluation of applicants.

INTERVIEWS

□ Interview Questions: Select appropriate questions that will be asked of each candidate. (See Interview Questions: Do's and Don’ts). (p.4.)

□ Conduct interviews: Interviews should be carefully documented. In order to begin checking references, an Authorization for Release of Information Form, (p.5) should be completed by final candidates prior to the end of the interview. An Applicant Evaluation Form (p.6) should be completed for each finalist and submitted to University Staffing Services.
Activity Checklist for Filling Classified Positions

SELECTION

- Reference Checks: Conduct and document reference checks on finalists using the Reference Checking Form. (p.7)
- Applicant Evaluation: An Application Evaluation Form (p.6) should be completed for all finalists and submitted to University Staffing Services.
- Pre-Offer: Prior to extending an offer of employment, verify the salary/step information and any specifics regarding the start date with the Division of Human Resources at x4227. Start dates for all employees should be on a Monday at the start of a pay period.
- Information on Civil Service employment: It is the responsibility of each manager to ensure that all finalists understand that they are being considered for a Civil Service position. The Manager should also inform all finalists that they need to contact University Staffing Services in order to determine their Civil Service status.
- Selection: A candidate whose qualifications, experience and background best meet the requirements for the position and is a good fit within the department should be selected.

POST SELECTION

- Extending the Offer: The hiring manager should extend the offer of employment after notifying the Appointing Authority in University Staffing Services of the selection. When the verbal offer has been accepted return the Application Evaluation Form, Authorization for Release of Information, Reference Checking Form (s), and one (1) copy of the regret letter to the University Staffing Services at the end of the selection period.
- Offer Letters: A letter confirming the verbal offer will be sent to the new employee by the University Staffing Services. The letter will include specific information on the position title, workweek, salary range, step, anniversary date and Civil Service status. A copy will be sent to the hiring department.
- Regret Letter: The hiring manager should ensure that all applicants not selected receive written notification that the vacancy has been filled. (See sample Regret Letter)
- New Employee Orientation: New employees will be scheduled for Orientation and In-processing by the Classified Staffing Coordinator. An e-mail notification will be sent prior to the orientation appointment.
