Welcome to the 2013
Middle States Commission on Higher Education
Annual Conference

This CD-ROM contains files of handout materials from many of this year’s presenters. The contents of the presentations were developed by the individual speakers. With the exception of MSCHE staff presenters, MSCHE neither implies its endorsement nor support of the comments of individual presenters. Please note that this CD-ROM contains presentations from the conference itself. Pre-conference workshop materials are not included, as those workshops required an additional fee.

The contents herein are for educational purposes only and are not for commercial use.

CONTENTS

Power Point Presentations

Monday, December 9, 2013

Roles and Responsibilities of the Accreditation Liaison Officer (ALO)
Robert A. Schneider, Middle States Commission on Higher Education

The PRR: Vehicle for Engaging Faculty and Staff in the Development of a ‘Culture of Evidence’
Joanne Cote-Bonanno, Steven L. Johnson, and Ronald L. Sharps, Montclair State University

An Effective Solution to Meet Standard 14: A Case Study at Rowan University
Mira Lalovic-Hand, Jacqueline Ring, and Riham Saadeddline, Rowan University

Evidence-based Management: Techniques and Strategies for Using Assessment for Achieving Overall Institutional Effectiveness
Sean A. McKitrick, Middle States Commission on Higher Education
Assessing Student Learning: The Role of Student Affairs in Institutional Assessment and Planning
Elliott Strickland and Jennifer McLean, Pennsylvania College of Technology

Governance: What Does the Commission Expect?
Tito Guererro, Middle States Commission on Higher Education

How to Successfully Navigate the Substantive Change Process, Parts 1 and 2
Ellie A. Fogarty and Carmella Morrison, Middle States Commission on Higher Education

Understanding MSCHE Expectations for Financial Reporting and Documentation
Lisa Marie McCauley and Tito Guerrero, Middle States Commission on Higher Education

From Outcomes to Competencies: Aligning Curriculum and Assessments for Flexible Student Pathways
Cynthia Davis and Kathleen Barr Warner, University of Maryland University College

It Takes a Regional Village: The Eastern PA Two-Year College Assessment Consortium
Jim Benner, Northampton Community College; William F. Ford, Bucks County Community College; and Charles W. Beem, Bucks County Community College.

Tuesday, December 10, 2013

What Would Einstein Say?
Terry Calhoun, Society for College and University Planning

Building Program-Level Assessments without Burdening Faculty
Gerard O’Sullivan and Janet Thiel, Neumann University

Moving Toward a Decentralized Assessment System
Margaret A. Hamilton and Vanessa O’Brien-McMasters, Camden County College

Crisis Management: Keeping Your Publics (Including Your Accreditors) Informed and Remaining in Compliance with Federal Regulations
Richard J. Pokrass, Middle States Commission on Higher Education
The Periodic Review Report: Re-Accreditation at the Mid-Point
Robert K. Clark, Cumberland County College; and Christy L. Faison,
Middle States Commission on Higher Education

Making the Planning and Accreditation Connection: Reordering Standards Based on Campus Strategic Priorities
Carol Van Der Karr, State University of New York at Cortland

Utilizing Assessment in Student Affairs at the Community College
Sam Hirsch and Ron Jackson, Community College of Philadelphia

The following presenters were unable to provide electronic files for inclusion on this CD-ROM, but it is anticipated that their materials will be posted to the Commission website following the conference

Using the Standards as a Roadmap for Student Success and Completion
Michael McDonough and Valarie Avalone, Monroe Community College

Implementing Middle States Expectations for Assessment
Ellie A. Fogarty and Debra G. Klinman, Middle States Commission on Higher Education

Becoming a Strategic Organization
G. Geoffrey Cromarty, Philadelphia University

Building the Foundations Necessary to Meet Standards 7 and 14
W. Allen Richman, Prince George’s Community College

Institutional Planning and Renewal
Francis J. Felser, Bryant & Stratton College; Anne L. Loria, Bryant & Stratton College; and Christy L. Faison, Middle States Commission on Higher Education

Two Colleagues, Two Colleges, Two Cores: Using General Education Assessment to Define and Promote Your Institution’s Identity
Cathy Sweet, St. John Fisher College, and Heidi Northwood, Nazareth College

Building a Sustainable System of Assessment
Nassim Ebrahimi, Anne Arundel Community College

Agents of Change: Using Data to Nudge and Inform Improvement
Randy Swing, Association for Institutional Research

Aligning Accreditation with Institutional Effectiveness: The Small, Private College
Perspective
Gail Gibson Sheffield, Paul Smith’s College; Mary Hendrickson, Wilson College; Valerie Lehr,
St. Lawrence University; and Christine Zimmerman, St. Lawrence University
Follow-Up Reports: What, Why, and How?
Debra G. Klinman, Middle States Commission on Higher Education

The Following Sessions Will Be Discussion Only and Will Not Have Handout Materials

On Mobilizing a Campus for the Work of Accreditation
Tito Guerrero, Middle States Commission on Higher Education; John Ettling, State University of New York College at Plattsburgh; and Jose Jaime Rivera, University of the Sacred Heart

Update for Current Peer Reviewers
Erika Swain, Middle States Commission on Higher Education