Click on Award Messages for more information about your award(s).

The screenshot shows the Montclair State University website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the university logo and name, and a search bar. Below the navigation bar, there are tabs for 'Personal Information', 'Student', and 'Financial Aid'. The main heading is 'Award Messages for 2015-2016 Academic Year'. Below this heading, there is a breadcrumb trail: 'Home > Financial Aid > Award > Award Overview > Award Messages'. A table with two columns, 'Fund' and 'Message', is displayed. The table contains three rows of information regarding different types of financial aid: Federal Pell Grant, Federal Subsidized Loan, and Federal Unsubsidized Loan. Each row provides details about the award and the steps required to receive it.

Fund	Message
Federal Pell Grant	The Federal Pell Grant is awarded to students seeking their first bachelor's degree. Award amounts depend on financial need, as determined by the information reported on the FAFSA, and enrollment status. no repayment is required.
Federal Subsidized Loan	A Federal Direct Stafford student loan is money you are borrowing from the federal government which you must repay. In order to be eligible for this loan, you must complete two steps: <ul style="list-style-type: none">The Entrance Counseling for undergraduate student.The Master Promissory Note (MPN) for the "Subsidized/Unsubsidized Loan" Once both processes are completed, the financial aid office will receive notification and your Stafford loan will disburse to your account (bill). If either process is incomplete the loans will not be applied to your account. Students must be enrolled at least half-time. This loan enters repayment six months after dropping below half-time enrollment or graduating. Subsidized loans are based on financial need. The federal government pays the interest during qualified enrollment periods. Unsubsidized loans are not based on need and interest accrues from the first disbursement of the loan. <ul style="list-style-type: none">For a video tutorial of the process go to the Stafford Loans page.Please go to StudentLoans.gov to do the application process.
