

ALL IN THE MSU FAMILY PERQS PROGRAM
(Instructions for obtaining a University Family Identification Card)

1. Verification of Employment Forms for employees are available in Human Resources.
2. Employee must complete and sign form with accurate information. NOTE: To be eligible to use this program, MSU employees must work full-time. We would normally expect that your spouse, domestic partner or children reside with you in the same household, with your home as the primary place of residence. Exceptions would include instances of shared custody of children and commuter relationships for spouses/domestic partners. In these cases, when the child, spouse or domestic partner is in your household, s/he shall qualify for these prerequisites. Your children must be unmarried.
3. Human Resources verifies full-time status, retains original for files and gives employee a copy of form.
4. Family member takes the copy to I Card Office (Student Center Lower Level—next to Game Room).
5. I Card Office issues Identification Card.
6. NOTE: There is a $10.00 charge for replacement cards. Repeat steps 1 – 5 for replacement cards.
