

GANG AWARENESS SEMINAR

Sponsored by Project C.O.P.E.

(Communities Organizing for Prevention and Empowerment)

Dr. Robert J. Reid

Associate Professor & Program Director

In partnership with
Department of Family & Child Studies

Speakers from the New Jersey State Police
Street Gang Unit-North Region, NJ State Parole, Ex-Gang
Member Associations and other agencies to be announced.

The impact of gangs in our communities affects us all....
This FREE seminar is open to students*, teachers, parents,
law enforcement , clergy, and community leaders.

Montclair State University
College of Education & Human Services
Monday, April 9th, 2007
8:30 am – 12:00 noon
University Hall, Room #1050

Please arrive early to complete your registration. Refreshments will be served.

Limited seats! Must register before 04/01/07 by calling 973-655-6785 or e-mail us your name and contact information at projectcope@mail.montclair.edu

 Students must be at least 18 yrs old due to the mature content of the information that will be presented.