

SPRAGUE LIBRARY

PAUL J. MARTINEZ

Sprague Library

B.S. Indiana University of Pennsylvania

M.L.I.S. School of of Communications, Information, and Library Sciences;
Rutgers University

MR. MARTINEZ joins Sprague Library as a Cataloger and comes from Passaic County Community College where he was a Cataloger and served in the Reference Department teaching information literacy classes. He also taught The College Experience study skills course as an adjunct professor. Previously, he was a Cataloging Librarian at Baker & Taylor, a major vendor of library materials and services. In 2004, while attending Rutgers University, he was an Intern in Sprague Library's Technical Services Division. Working in the commercial sector, Mr. Martinez wrote technical documentation and managed Internet content providers.