

Leadership T-Shirt Design Contest

Leadership is an important part of the college experience, offering various long and short term benefits. In an effort to promote the benefits of involvement through leadership, The Center for Student Involvement is looking for creative designs for t-shirts. The winning design will be selected at the Leadership Panel Program on November 21st 8:15pm to 10:15pm in the Student Center Ballrooms by peer votes. You DO NOT need to be present to win. Shirts will be given away in December with the winning design.

The contest is open to:

Teams, staffs, organizations, volunteer groups, and individuals that are leaders (Athletic teams, Peer Leaders, Admissions Ambassadors, Community Assistants, Bonner Leaders, SC Info Desk Leaders, Student Leadership Team, The Rec Center Leaders, Student Organizations, CAPS Ambassadors, Service Assistants, Commuter Assistants, Justice League Volunteers, Health Promotions Leaders, Student Organizations, SGA Leaders, etc.).

The requirements are:

- All designs must be created by current MSU students only
- This can be done as a group or as an individual leader
- The shirt can be one or two sides
- The design can be done with up to 3 colors
- The design should revolve around leadership and/or the benefits to becoming a leader
- The shirt should not be promoting your specific group but leadership in general (Do not use your groups name on the design)
- One design is allowed per group or person
- Submissions must be in by November 21st at NOON

Submissions should be emailed to ploskonkaj@mail.montclair.edu in pdf and in the original design file (jpeg, ppt, doc, etc.). The entry form must also be included in your email as an attachment.

Please email ploskonkaj@mail.montclair.edu with any questions.
