PROGRAM RATIONALE

How does this program address the needs and interests of students? How is the travel experience and the specific program location integral to achieving the academic objective of the course/s.

PROGRAM LEADER EXPERTISE

Leader 1: Please describe your expertise in the proposed location. If the primary language spoken there is not English, please provide information regarding your level of fluency in the primary language or your expectations to be able to travel with English only. Do you anticipate the need for an interpreter/translator?

Leader 2: Please describe your expertise in the proposed location. If the primary language spoken there is not English, please provide information regarding your level of fluency in the primary language.

TARGET STUDENT POPULATION

Please describe the target audience including the number of major/minors or the number of students who normally take this course on campus. The target minimum number of students for a two leader Faculty-led study abroad program is 15 with a maximum of 24. A Summer School Abroad program approved by IE for a single leader should have a minimum expected enrollment of 10.

APPROVAL

Academic departments and colleges are responsible for reviewing programs including course subject matter, instructional delivery methods and faculty and staff eligibility and suitability to lead a program. Courses offered abroad must be of comparable academic rigor to those offered on campus and offer significant enhancement to the department's on-campus academic program. Please review the Guidelines for Deans and Chairs.
