

Writer's Reflection

Name: _____

1. What is the most important thing that you are saying in this essay?
2. What are you most proud of about this essay – or the process of writing this essay?
3. What are you concerned about with this essay?
4. 4. If you had to do it again, how would you write this essay differently?
5. You will write another essay. What about the process you went through in writing this essay will you keep the same? What will you do differently?
6. Is there anything else you want your readers – your classmates or your teacher – to know before reading your paper?
7. What do you especially want feedback on? Or, to put it another way, what issue or area of writing do you want me to be sure to address?

Isaacs, October 2009