The Red Hawk Pantry: $10k Stops Hunger Today

To combat the reality and struggle of food insecurity for our students, Student Development and Campus Life has established an The Red Hawk Pantry. On April 18, the on-campus food pantry opened for the first time and continues to serve the needs of our students over the summer months. Of the nearly 200 Montclair State students surveyed, 10% expressed food insecurity on a daily basis, while 15% expressed a need on weekly basis and 12% on a monthly basis. We need your help to battle this issue of food insecurity. [\[View full details\]](#)

Red Hawk Callers Ring Again!

Don't be surprised if you get a phone call soon from a Red Hawk Caller! These hard-working students make more than 210,000 calls a year to alumni, parents and friends, seeking vitally-needed support for Montclair State's programs and services. The work that the Red Hawk Callers perform not only benefits the University, but also lets them learn from alumni about what Montclair State was like in years gone by, and gives them a glimpse into life after graduation. Through daily communications with alumni, the students learn what their futures might hold, while also letting graduates know what's currently happening at Montclair State. View full details

Safety Tips for Summer Dips

A message from Liberty Mutual

The heat of summer draws us to the water. While fun and relaxing, it's important to also understand the dangers of water activities. Refresh your knowledge on how to stay safe at the pool or beach.

Liberty Mutual can help insure your residential pool and protect your home and car as you safely enjoy all of your summer activities. To learn more or to get a free, no-obligation quote, call 888-239-4854 or visit us online at libertymutual.com/Montclair.
