Mark Your Calendars for Homecoming 2016 - October 22

Homecoming at Montclair State University is one of the biggest events of the year. This year is no exception and Homecoming is a great occasion for alumni to return to campus. On Saturday, October 22, the Homecoming festivities will include the Alumni Tailgate and Campus Carnival - where alumni, students and families can enjoy food, carnival games and rides - alumni get-togethers, and of course, the Homecoming football game, where the Red Hawks will face off against The College of New Jersey Lions. College Application Camp

College Application Camp, taking place on the Montclair State campus this summer, helps rising high school seniors address the stress of applying to college with its four-day non-residential programs. Students draft a memorable Common Application essay, assemble a polished resume, and build interviewing skills all before the start of senior year.

Camp founder and essay coach Pat Berry is offering the program to Montclair State alumni at a 10% discount off of the $650 registration fee. Upcoming program dates include: July 25 to 28 (Session 2) and August 1 to 4 (Session 3).

Clinging Jellyfish Arrive at Montclair State

It began harmlessly enough in early June when a New Jersey fisherman brought a dime-sized jellyfish from Barnegat Bay to a nearby aquarium. The aquarium, in turn, contacted biology professor and director of Montclair State University's Marine Biology and Coastal Sciences program Paul Bologna.

Alumni Spotlight

Kathleen McDonough '89 and Keven L. Allen '81

As graduates of Montclair State University, both halves of the Passaic County power couple took very different routes toward show business. Allen studied theatrical design while working at the Papermill Playhouse, the Surflight Theater on Long Beach Island and various venues in New York City. McDonough majored in business administration with a focus in marketing management and, following graduation, delved into the hospitality industry for a few years before transitioning into software sales.
