Digital Alumni Series: Thomas E. Franklin, Assistant Professor

Thomas E. Franklin is an Assistant Professor in Multiplatform Journalism in the School of Communication and Media, bringing a wealth of journalism experience to his teaching after nearly 30-years as an award winning news photographer and video journalist. In 2002, he was a Pulitzer Prize finalist for his work on 9/11. He's best known for his iconic flag-raising photograph taken at Ground Zero. In September, we honored 9/11 with a talk from Tom, where he shared his experiences from 9/11 and how the day has impacted him both personally and professionally. View the recording

How to Control Critter Invasions

A message from Liberty Mutual

No matter how much you love nature and wildlife, chances are you won't love it when a critter invades your space. The key is to make your home uninviting to animals, and regularly check for signs of critters before they can do significant harm. Here are a few tips. Read more

Liberty Mutual can help insure your residential pool and protect your home and car as you safely enjoy all of your summer activities. To learn more or to get a free, no-obligation quote, call 888-239-4854 or visit us online at libertymutual.com/Montclair.

Patrick Naughter '02

Women's Soccer Head Coach Captures 100th Career Win

Montclair State head women's soccer coach Pat Naughter earned his 100th career victory on Saturday as his Red Hawks downed Stockton University 5-1 at MSU Soccer Park. Naughter is no stranger to Montclair State having played for the Red Hawks from 1996-1999. He also spent three seasons as an assistant coach with the men's team. Naughter played four seasons for the Red Hawks helping Montclair to a 43-27-10 mark as a standout out defender. He scored two goals during the 1998 campaign and was an integral part in a defensive unit that allowed just 13 goals during a 14-3-3 campaign. [\[View full details\]](#)

Men's Soccer Head Coach Captures 100th Career Win

Todd Tumelty '07 has been part of the Montclair State soccer program since 2003 when he joined the Red Hawks as part of the finest recruiting class in school history that re-established Montclair State as not only one of the top programs in the New Jersey Athletic Conference but in all of Division III. A three-year starter as well as a team captain, Tumelty anchored one of the nation's top defensive units in 2006 as Montclair State captured the first of four consecutive NJAC Championships while earning its first NCAA Division III Tournament berth in eight years.
