Anne Frank's life and words continue to have powerful meaning for young people around the world. During this program, discover ways to prepare students to read and comprehend The Diary of a Young Girl within the larger historical framework of the Holocaust. Led by facilitators from Echoes & Reflections and the Anne Frank Center Center for Mutual Respect, this program guides participants through antisemitism in Europe and the historical events that impacted Anne and her family, the enduring socio-emotional lessons of her life, and how to use the diary as a historical and literary classroom resource.

“Through this program, educators will:

1. Explore a sound pedagogy for the planning and implementation of Holocaust education in the classroom;
2. Examine instructional enhancements to support student learning and understanding;
3. Discover and utilize classroom-ready digital assets including lesson plans, visual history testimonies, and additional primary source materials;
4. Enhance personal knowledge about the Holocaust, including the history of antisemitism, and
5. Build confidence and capacity to teach about the Holocaust and Anne Frank.

“The content allows for connections to be made across time and place. As global citizens, students can take action right where they are. I could go on... this workshop enlightened me.”

—High School History Teacher

Sponsored by: Montclair State University Holocaust, Genocide, and Human Rights Education Project

Upcoming Program

Friday, October 18, 2019 | 9 AM - 3 PM
Montclair State University | 1 Normal Ave | Montclair, NJ 07043

Cost: Free

For more information, contact: burkholderz@montclair.edu
Register online: http://bit.ly/AnneFrankMSU

To learn more, visit our website at echoesandreflections.org.

A joint program of the Anti-Defamation League, USC Shoah Foundation, and Yad Vashem