

HUMAN RIGHTS EDUCATION INTERNSHIP 2.0 (Now High Tech!) SPRING 2020

Build your resume and get hands-on experience teaching
for social justice.

QQMDBPFBEMF

/PWFNCFS

Join the Montclair State University
Holocaust, Genocide, and Human Rights Education Project to gain experience in the field of human rights education.

This competitive internship is open to all Montclair State undergraduate students. Interns accepted into the program must register for a three-credit course: EDFD 445 - Human Rights Education.

Interns will select a human rights subject, research it and create an engaging lesson plan incorporating the latest technology. Interns will teach at MSU Human Rights University for a Day at Montclair High.

Possible human rights topics include:

- The Holocaust
- Black Lives Matter
- Latinx Civil Rights
- Anti-Semitism
- Women's History
- Native American Civil Rights
- Refugee Crises
- Anti-Muslim Bias
- LGBTQ Rights, or Create Something New!

In addition, students will help run dynamic public programs including conferences, films and teacher workshops on human rights education.

To apply <http://bit.ly/MSUIntern2020>