How does race play a role in the pay gap?

- Discrimination
- Unequal access to career opportunities
★ New Jersey women who are employed full time lose a combined total of more than $32.5 billion every year.

★ In New Jersey, more than 417,000 family households are headed by women.

A working woman in New Jersey would have enough money for:

- 14 more months of child care.
- Nearly one additional year of tuition and fees for a four-year public university, or the full cost of tuition and fees at a two-year community college.
- Approximately 84 more weeks of food for her family (1.6 years’ worth); Nearly five more months of mortgage and utilities payments; More than nine additional months of rent.
What do YOU think causes the gender pay gap?
Main Cause of the pay gap:

- Sexism - prejudice or discrimination based on sex or gender, especially against women and girls.

- Sexism can be a belief that one sex is superior to or more valuable than another sex. It imposes limits on what men and boys can and should do and what women and girls can and should do. (Encyclopedia Britannica)
Additional causes of the pay gap:

- Employees asking women about their previous work salary.
- Biases.
- Women taking time off to have children.
- Women simply not knowing they get paid less.

Questions to Answer

1. How will the law get rid of the pay gap?
2. What are the critiques of this law?
3. What do you think is missing from this law?
Components of the Bill

1. How will the law get rid of the pay gap?

- Illegal for employers to ask women about their previous pay
- Illegal for employers to pay “protected classes” such as women and minorities, less compared to white men if they perform "substantially similar work".

- Employer will have to prove why they believe an employee’s experience and education separates them from receiving the same amount of pay.

- If employers are caught paying women less, they will pay 6 years of back wages.
Critiques of the law

- Businesses do not like the law
- Businesses do not like the idea of back pay

3. What do you think is missing from the law?
The Gender Pay Gap does not exist?!
What do we say to people who believe the gender pay gap does not exist?"

- No war on women
- The pay gap is a result of women choosing to make less
- The gender pay gap is childish
