

Photo by Chanda Hall

Build your resume
and get hands-on experience teaching
for social justice.

Gain professional experience in Human Rights Education.

This competitive internship is open to all
Montclair State undergraduate students.
Interns accepted into the program must register for a three-credit course:

EDFD 445 Human Rights Education.

Select a human rights topic, research it,
and then teach it to local high school students.

Select a topic such as:

- Black Lives Matter
- Dreamers & DACA
- Environmental Justice
- Anti-Semitism
- Women's Rights
- Native American Rights
- Refugee Crisis
- Anti-Muslim Bias
- LGBTQ+ Rights
- Educational Equality
- Food Insecurity
- Human Trafficking
- Freedom of Religion
- and more... create your own topic.

Apply Early, or by:

Nov. 1, 2020

"I AM NO LONGER
ACCEPTING THE THINGS
I CANNOT CHANGE. I AM
CHANGING THE THINGS
I CANNOT ACCEPT."

- Angela Y. Davis

To Apply: <https://bit.ly/HumanRights2022>

Montclair State University
IT'S ALL HERE.