"Studying music at a place that has a high demand for creativity is only making me a better musician overall. Being able to stay at a place that is second to home and with friends who will always be there for you is very stress relieving."

—RYAN BRANCO, UNDERGRADUATE TRUMPET MAJOR, MUSIC EDUCATION

"As an older student with an established career, MSU has provided me a fantastic music education in an affordable and flexible environment with world class instructors. I can't recommend the Cali School enough."

BRASS PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

At the Cali School, brass students develop artistry and technique through performance, while studying with world class faculty. We challenge students to excel as instrumentalists in solo recitals and in diverse ensembles, including orchestra, wind bands, jazz groups, and a vigorous and varied chamber music program. Our faculty includes members of the New York Philharmonic, the Metropolitan Opera, the New York City Ballet, the United States Army Band, and Imani Winds, and multiple Broadway and Radio City performers. Master classes by world-renowned artists provide additional opportunities to experience peak performance. The result is an atmosphere that's both intense and supportive.
