MUSIC EDUCATION

MASTER OF ARTS WITH A CONCENTRATION IN MUSIC EDUCATION

ADVANCED CERTIFICATE IN MUSIC EDUCATION

We are pleased to offer 2 graduate level programs for music teachers. The Master of Arts is a degree program designed for those who not only want to advance their teaching skills but may also have a long-term goal of pursuing a doctoral degree. The Advanced Certificate in Music Education is a 15-credit certificate program based on our wide range of popular music education classes. Both programs feature courses that appeal to the K-12 music classroom and ensemble setting (e.g. Teaching Popular Music, Teaching World Music). As a faculty, we are committed to educating leaders who have grounding in social justice and thoughtful pedagogical practice for children and adolescents in the public schools.

SOME OF THE HIGHLIGHTS OF OUR GRADUATE PROGRAM INCLUDE:

- Music education faculty with national and international prominence as clinicians, speakers, authors and researchers.
- Person-centered learning environment that both challenges and supports the advancement of music teaching.
- Courses that represent a wide range of interests including hybrid and online options
- Small classes with individual attention from faculty
- Opportunities to play in world music ensembles (African Drumming; Balkan Music) as well as our resident instrumental ensembles.
- All evening classes during the academic year and winter/summer offerings.
- No GRE's or auditions required for admission.
