The film relates the story of a young Viennese Jew, Ferry, who leaves Austria after Kristallnacht and eventually ends up in Marseille. En route to Prague, then to Paris and, with the fall of France, to Marseilles, Ferry is always a half-step ahead of the Germans and along his journey makes friends with other illicit travelers.

November 20, 2013 at 2:30 PM
Calcia Hall, Room 135