* ENFL 208 will meet the general education requirement as well as a major requirement; NOTES: English Major Courses must be 200 level and above and meet departmental guidelines. Because ENGL 200 will improve students' work in their other major courses, the department recommends taking it within their first 12 credits, but not as their first major course. Students are discouraged from taking more than three major courses per semester. Those who are considering taking more should consult their advisor. Total Required: 135 credits (34 credits in the major)
