Explanation of Awards

Private loans – private loans are through lenders such as banks or educational loan lenders.

- Can be borrowed by student and/or parent
  - Student will most likely need a co-signer
- Check both the interest rates and the repayment terms to ensure the loan is right for you
- Truth in Lending Act – requires a number of steps to be taken by the borrower and the lender before a loan can be disbursed
  - Because of the mandatory time needed by the law, private loans can take up to a month to process
  - Because of this, once the school determines that the loan is needed, you may have to go back to your lender and accept the loan

http://www.montclair.edu/financial-aid/educational-loans/private-loans/
When should you apply for a parent PLUS or private loan?

Parent PLUS and private loans require a credit check that can expire. We recommend:

• For a Parent PLUS loan you apply 90 days prior to the first week of classes
• For a private loan you apply 180 days prior to the first week of classes
• Applying for the whole academic year

Can My Student Be Considered Independent?

There are only a few cases in which the federal government allows a student to be independent. A student must:

- Be 24 years old or older
- Be Married
- Have a dependent that they support
- Be a Veteran
- Be an orphan or ward of the court
- Be homeless
- Be an emancipated minor
- Already have a bachelors degree and is enrolling in graduate school or an eligible graduate certificate
We Have a Special Circumstance

The Federal Government only allows review of a financial aid award package if there was a loss of income due to:

- Unemployment
- Loss of untaxed benefit (i.e., worker’s compensation, child support, pensions and annuities, social security benefits)
- Separation/Divorce
- Death of a wage earner
- Medical expenses that have been itemized on your Federal tax return

www.montclair.edu/financial-aid/request-for-review
We Completed the FAFSA, Why Haven’t We Heard Anything Yet?

The FAFSA doesn’t go straight to the schools that you listed. It has many stops along the way:

- Selective Service
- Social Security Administration
- Possibly other Federal Agencies
- You may owe documents such as proof of registering with selective service, proof of citizenship, a copy of social security card, etc

It can take up to 1 week for a school to receive your FAFSA
Why Doesn’t Montclair Have My FAFSA?

If we do not have your FAFSA there could be many reasons:

- Incorrect Social Security number (on FAFSA or on your admissions application)
- Parent AND/OR student did not sign the FAFSA
- You did not put Montclair’s school code on the FAFSA
- You did not answer the drug conviction question

It is important that Students go back to the FAFSA 48 hours after completing it to ensure that it was fully processed
