Personal statement (please attach):

Why have you chosen to major in French, German, Italian, or Spanish and how has that changed or enriched your life? What are your future career plans?

Recommendations: Two letters from MSU professors with whom you have studied in your major.

This scholarship is available to full-time prospective juniors and seniors in the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures or Department of Spanish and Italian. Preference will be given to a non-native speaker studying the foreign language as their second language. This scholarship is awarded based on academic achievement and financial need. Recipients must have at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA. Please note: A FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) form must be on file with the MSU Financial Aid Office for students to be eligible for this award.

Applications should be left in hard copy only in Conrad Schmitt Hall 222 for Dr. Lois Oppenheim, Chair, Department of Modern Languages and Literatures, or Dr. Raúl Galoppe, Chair, Department of Spanish and Italian, as appropriate.

Deadline: March 1, 2019
