

Montclair State University MPH (for Fall 2019), Concentration in Community Health Education

Sample Work Plan for Full-time Students to Complete the MPH in 2 Years

Fall Year 1	Spring Year 1	Summer Year 1
HLTH 501 Public Health Seminar HLTH 504 Behavioral & Social Science in Health HLTH 565 Foundations of Epidemiology	HLTH 528 Program Planning & Evaluation HLTH 555 Structures of Inequality in Health HLTH 580 Health Policy & Politics	HLTH 604 Internship (6 credits) <sup>A</sup> And/or FSHD 506 Introductory Statistical Methods <elective> Elective
Fall Year 2	Spring Year 2	Summer Year 2
HLTH 529 Applied Topics in Program Planning & Evaluation <Elective> Elective (if not taken summer) HLTH 507 Community Health Education Methods, Application, and Practice FSHD506 Introductory Statistical Methods in Family and Child Studies (if not taken summer)	HLTH 502 Determinants of Environmental Health HLTH 606 Culminating Seminar <elective> Elective if not taken previously

A: Note that some students fulfill HLTH 604 over two semesters (3 credits in summer plus 3 credits in fall.) In this case, they should take an elective in the summer and/or FSHD 506 which is offered in the summer.

Sample Work Plan for Part-time Students to Complete the MPH in 3 Years

Fall Year 1	Spring Year 1	Summer Year 1
HLTH 501 Public Health Seminar HLTH 504 Behavioral & Social Science in Health	HLTH 528 Program Planning & Evaluation HLTH 580 Health Policy & Politics
Fall Year 2	Spring Year 2	Summer Year 2
HLTH 565 Epidemiology HLTH 529 Applied Topics in Program Planning & Evaluation	FSHD 506 Introductory Statistical Methods in Family and Child Studies HLTH 555 Structures of Inequality in Health	HLTH 604 Internship (6 credits) <sup>B</sup>
Fall Year 3	Spring Year 3	Summer Year 3
HLTH 507 Community Health Education Methods, Application, and Practice [Elective] Elective	HLTH 502 Determinants of Environmental Health HLTH 606 Culminating Seminar

B: similar to above, students may elect to spread their HLTH 604 credits over the summer and fall semesters, and opt to take an elective and/or FSHD 506 during the summer.

Typical Course Offerings by semester*

Fall	Spring	Summer
HLTH501 Public Health Seminar	HLTH502 Determinants of Environmental Health	FSHD506 Introductory Statistical Methods in Family/Ch Studies
HLTH504 Behavioral & Social Science in Health	HLTH528 Program Planning and Evaluation	HLTH604 Internship (3 or 6 credits)*
HLTH529 Applied Topics in Program Planning & Eval	HLTH555 Structures of Inequality in Public Health	NUFD590 Nutrition Policy (Elective)
HLTH565 Epidemiology	HLTH580 Health Policy and Politics	HLTH511 Biomedical & Psychosocial Perspectives on Drugs (E)
HLTH 506 Health Services Research	HLTH606 Culminating Seminar	HLTH 577 Selected Topics in Health (E) Immigrant Health
HLTH 508 Community Health Education Methods, Application and Practice	HLTH 581 Health Systems Management and Admin	Other electives in other depts can be selected by advisement.
HLTH 582 Health Economics and Finance	HLTH 525 Grantwriting (E)
HLTH604 Internship (3 or 6 credits)	HLTH592 Controversies in Sexuality Education (E)
FSHD506 Intro Statistical Methods in Family/Ch Studies	NUFD580 Current Applications in Nutrition (E)
EAES506 Intro to GIS and Remote Sensing (E)	Other electives in other depts. can be selected by advisement
NUFD580 Current Applications in Nutrition (E)
Other electives in other depts. can be selected by advisement

* This work plan is intended as a general guide. Course offerings are subject to change based on enrollment and faculty availability.

**HLTH604 must be completed either in the summer or the fall (for 6 credits) or in consecutive summer and fall sessions (3 credits each).