

NATIVE AMERICAN & INDIGENOUS STUDIES MINOR

NEW!

Montclair State University

The NAIS Minor from MSU can help prepare you for graduate work or a career in a wide range of fields.

- Native American Law
- Environmental Justice
- Native Art / Museums
- Cultural Resource Management
- Archaeology
- Education
- Social Services
- Native Language Revitalization

In Fall 2022, a new Native American & Indigenous Studies (NAIS) Minor will be offered at MSU.

Come join us!

Highlights:

- Exciting opportunities for community engagement with local Native American tribal communities
- Strong grounding in the field of Indigenous Studies, including new courses in NAIS 101 & NAIS 401
- Deep commitment to Indigenous rights, racial justice, decolonization, and environmental justice
- Course options in a variety of depts: Anthropology, History, Religion, English, Education, and more

Requirements:

- Only 18 credits required to complete the NAIS Minor
- Relevant courses you've previously taken will count toward the Minor.

PROGRAM CO-DIRECTORS:

- Dr. Elspeth Martini (HIST)
martinie@montclair.edu
- Dr. Chris Matthews (ANTH)
matthewsc@montclair.edu
- Dr. Mark Clatterbuck (RELG)
clatterbuckm@montclair.edu