TAMOUR KOUSHA '05

Tamour Kousha currently serves as the chief financial officer for Liberty Science Center, a nonprofit interactive science museum and learning center located in Jersey City, New Jersey. Liberty Science Center is one of the largest nonprofit organizations in New Jersey, where more than 750,000 students, teachers and parents visit each year. The Science Center houses 12 museum exhibition halls, a live animal collection with 110 species, giant aquariums, a 3D theater, live simulcast surgeries, K-12 classrooms and labs, teacher-development programs, and the largest planetarium in the Western Hemisphere.

Before joining Liberty Science Center, Tamour served as chief financial officer for New Jersey Community Development Corporation, a nonprofit community development and social service agency located in Paterson, New Jersey.

Tamour also serves as a trustee and chair of the finance committee for the Community Charter School of Paterson, a 900-student charter school in Paterson, New Jersey.

Tamour graduated from Montclair State University with a BS in Accounting. He resides in Bloomfield, New Jersey, with his wife, Gina. The two met in a journalism class at Montclair State University and have been married for 11 years.

On Monday, April 19th at 4 p.m. Tamour will speak and take questions in a special session for the Creating Spaces conference.
