

Which of these statements sound the most true?

- A) I am confident to travel independently, live in a country where I might not know the language, and be a representative of Montclair State University at a foreign university.
- B) I'm nervous to travel for a long period of time but I still want to try traveling abroad. Or, I'm interested in studying in a few different places while studying at Montclair State University.
- C) I want to study somewhere new and see more of the world, but I'm nervous about leaving the country or going too far away from home.

What type of traveler are you?

- A) Adventurous: I would like to see everything on my own terms and choose my path.
- B) Collaborative: I like traveling with a group of familiar faces in foreign places who can guide me to specific attractions and businesses where I do not have to make the plans for myself.
- C) Practical: I like to explore things that feel familiar and are in my comfort zone, but I'm okay to try new experiences on a smaller scale.

Which statement best describes your willingness to travel?

- A) I want to spend as much time in a new country as possible without disrupting my plans for graduation.
- B) I want something one to three weeks long because I have other commitments like family or work. Or I don't want to miss out on campus life at Montclair during the academic year.
- C) I want to live somewhere new for a few months or maybe even a year if its somewhere I'm interested in, but I also want to be able to get home easily if I need to.

Which places interest you the most?

- A) I want to study in South Korea, Austria, France, Germany, The Netherlands, Norway, Spain, United Kingdom, Argentina, Canada, or Australia
- B) I want to study in South Korea, Scotland, Austria, Iceland, Costa Rica, Morocco, Germany, Greece, India, or Italy
- C) I want to study in a new part of the United States, Canada, Guam, Puerto Rico, or the U.S. Virgin Islands.

What kind of environment would you enjoy studying in the most?

- A) I want to be somewhere where my language skills can be challenged and where I can immerse myself fully in a new culture.
- B) I want to be somewhere that is very guided and specific to my program, with a professor there to share their knowledge and expertise.
- C) I want to see somewhere new with the comforts of English speaking classrooms and peers.

If you chose mostly A:

You should research our Semester and Academic Year Exchange Programs. Montclair students can directly enroll in one of the 20+ universities abroad with which MSU has partnered. If there's a country you want to visit that is not on the list, you can also look at Affiliated Programs.

If you chose mostly B:

You should research our Faculty Led Programs. Faculty-Led Short Term Programs are either 7-14 day opportunities embedded within a semester course, or stand alone summer courses, led by Montclair State University faculty members. These are low cost programs that change annually.

If you chose mostly C:

You should research our National Student Exchange Program (NSE). This program provides accessible collegiate study away to undergraduate students at over 160 member colleges and universities in the United States, Canada, Guam, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands.
