

Discovery Tracks at University College

ARTS, CULTURE, AND DESIGN

For students who:

- consider themselves creative
- are interested in fine arts, media arts, and culture
- enjoy creating, performing, or teaching others about art and culture

BUSINESS, MATH, AND TECHNOLOGY

For students who:

- like to innovate with new technology
- enjoy working with numbers and data
- are interested in corporate culture
- enjoy teaching others

HEALTH, MEDICINE, AND THE SCIENCES

For students who:

- are interested in the sciences
- find emotional, mental, or physical health very important to them
- may want to pursue careers in the health and wellness industry
- enjoy teaching others science

SOCIAL JUSTICE, PUBLIC SERVICE, AND THE HUMANITIES

For students who:

- are interested in learning about/ or investigating cultural and societal issues
- enjoy volunteering, serving their community or advocating for others
- enjoy teaching

Students can pursue a Teacher Education Certification through all Discovery Track options; different teaching and education pathways are available within each interdisciplinary Track.*